

Australian Government

as at June 2014

CAREER INFORMATION FOR ADULTS

myfuture can help everyone to make career decisions. It has information on industries, occupations, study choices, scholarships, education and training providers, regional employment trends, videos and more. It has a personalised career exploration tool which helps people to discover jobs that suit them, and provides advice for people helping others to make career decisions. For more information visit the myfuture website (www.myfuture.edu.au).

Australian Apprenticeships combine paid work with structured training to give people nationally recognised industry qualifications. For more information visit the apprenticeships website (www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au).

Job Outlook is a careers and labour market research information site covering around 350 individual occupations. For more information visit the Job Outlook website (www.joboutlook.gov.au).

Find out where Australian Apprenticeships are available and follow links to job pathways and job descriptions. For more information visit the Pathways website (www.aapathways.com.au).

Adult Learning Australia represents organisations and individuals in the adult learning field. For more information visit the Adult Learning Australia website (www.ala.asn.au).

The New Enterprise Incentive Scheme helps eligible job seekers interested in starting and running a small business. For more information visit the NEIS website (www.employment.gov.au/new-enterprise-incentive-scheme-neis).

Employment Assistance and Support

Job Services Australia gives job seekers increased flexibility and access to support and services that are relevant and tailored to their individual circumstances. For more information visit the JSA website (www.employment.gov.au/job-services-australia-jsa).

Disability Employment Services can help people with disability to find and keep a job. People with Disability will normally access Disability Employment Services once they have left education or training. However, some school students in their final year of school with significant disability may be eligible to access the assistance of Disability Employment Services to transition from school to work as an Eligible School Leaver. For more information visit the JobAccess website (www.jobaccess.gov.au/jobseekers/help_available/free_expert_help_with_employment/thedisabilityemploymentservicesforjobseekersandemployees).

Fair Work Australia provides information and advice about Australia's national workplace relations system. For more information visit the Fair Work Australia website (www.fairwork.gov.au).

Graduate Careers Australia provides information about employment and career opportunities for graduates. For more information visit the GCA website (www.graduatecareers.com.au).

The Indigenous Employment Line provides information on Indigenous employment programs phone 1802 102.

JobAccess
AN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT INITIATIVE

CAREER INFORMATION

FOR ADULTS

Indigenous Jobs Australia connects Indigenous Australian job seekers to employers who are searching for Indigenous employees. For more information visit the Indigenous Jobs Australia website (www.indigenousjobsaustralia.com.au).

The Skills for Education and Employment (SEE) program helps eligible job seekers improve their English language, literacy and numeracy skills so they can achieve long-term employment or undertake further study or training as a pathway to employment. For more information visit the SEE website (www.industry.gov.au/skills/SkillsAndTrainingForIndividuals/SEE/Pages/default.aspx).

The National Disability Coordination Officer (NDCO) Program aims to help people with a disability to move between Vocational Education and Training (VET), university and work. For more information visit the NDCO website (<http://education.gov.au/national-disability-coordination-officer-program>).

JobAccess is a one-stop information shop for all matters relating to the employment of people with a disability. For more information visit the JobAccess website (www.jobaccess.gov.au).

The Labour Market Information Portal is an online resource with comprehensive and forward-looking data on industry employment, skills-related information and links to industries and regions. SkillsInfo has information on education and training, skill shortages, workforce ageing and Information and Communication Technology skills. For more information visit the Labour Market Information Portal website (www.lmip.gov.au).

Financial assistance

Study Assist provides information to students about Australian Government assistance for financing tertiary study. The website offers information on courses, providers, Government loan schemes, student support services and publications. For more information visit the study assist website (www.studyassist.gov.au).

Indigenous Cadetship Support helps Indigenous students by providing money to cover living costs while studying, as well as paid work experience in the holidays or throughout the year. For more information visit the Indigenous Cadetship Support website (www.ics.deewr.gov.au).

VET FEE-HELP is an income contingent loan scheme for VET sector that assists eligible students undertaking VET courses at the diploma level and above with an approved VET provider. For more information visit the VET FEE-HELP website (www.studyassist.gov.au/sites/studyassist/helppayingmyfees/vet-fee-help/pages/vet-fee-help).

You may be able to access support services and programs to continue your education and training, or to start work. For more information visit the Human Services website (www.humanservices.gov.au).

Training information

MySkills is Australia's Directory of Training. My Skills features information on all publicly available, nationally recognised vocational education and training in Australia. It is a Government initiative to assist individuals and employers to choose the training provider that best suits their needs. My Skills contains a range of training stories, statistical information on training providers and outcomes, and links to career and study assistance information. For more information visit the My Skills website (www.myskills.gov.au).

Open Universities Australia a flexible way to study toward a university degree off-campus. For more information visit the Open Universities website (www.open.edu.au).

Volunteering Australia provides information about a range of opportunities for volunteers. Volunteering is a great way to gain work experience in an area that you are interested in. For more information visit the Volunteering Australia website (www.volunteeringaustralia.org).